

Finding the right size is crucial for comfort and performance during your rides. We recommend following our instructions below.

Please take note of the product fit along with the size to make your final decision.

Product Size tells you which one to pick based on your body measurements.

Product Fit tells you how the product will hug your body: tight, just right, or a little loose. All our products have an intended fit.

For all tops, we recommend using your chest and waist measurements to determine the most appropriate size.

For all bottoms, we recommend using your waist and hip measurements to determine the most appropriate size.
